

Alick Kerr has sold his 1.6 Peugeot 205 and is nearing completion of a 1.9 version – but perhaps not quickly enough. The original intention to upgrade the 1.6 to 1.9 spec was ditched in favour of a complete new car for the new season. Having just taken delivery of, and installed, his LAD prepared engine, there is still a lot to do, and the Snowman Rally is only two weeks away.